The Domination game is fun until it's no longer a game

Becky is a thirty-something housewife whose millionaire husband Derek is more focused on his business than his marriage. It doesn't help that Derek is very secretive about his business, further shutting Becky out. Becky's jogging partner, Marie, tells Becky of how an affair actually saved Marie's marriage. Becky doesn't think that's the answer, but, curious, she peruses a dating website...

On a whim, Becky arranges a date with a tall, dark stranger. They meet in a lush restaurant bar and have instant chemistry. Becky's date has a dark side, and Becky can't deny her excitement. But he also has no scruples and no boundaries. As her date tapes her wrists with duct tape, Becky's thoughts go from saving her marriage to saving her life. Becky wishes her husband were near. And maybe he is...
