Envoy: Your Personal Guide to Classroom Management Michael Grinder

ENVoY is Michael Grinder's distillation of the best and most practical management techniques gleaned from over a decade of personal research (visiting over 4,000 classrooms). This book is a collection of 31 nonverbal management skills which foster a win-win atmosphere in the classroom. It can be used by the individual teacher or utilized as a manual for professional development and is ideally suited for peer coaching. You will learn how to: get the class's attention quicker; employ transitions effectively; increase concentration and productivity during seatwork; have more energy both during the school day and at home; and positively influence the single most powerful leverage point in education -- the teacher/student relationship.
