Power Pain & Passion: A Journey Through Love Dona Williams

This book reveals a path traveled by a young woman in search of love. Although love was found in possibly all the wrong places, learning always took place. The journey begins with the first encounter of girl meets boy love and ends in a discovery of self. Once the discovery of self took place there was room for self-expression. While part one is the author's personal account, part two is a collection of poems, which in one way or another exhibits the writers' reaction to power, pain, passion and love.[Author bio]Dona Wells, motivated and inspired, decided to write about her experiences in life. At age sixteen, Dona gave birth to her daughter. She was then forced to mature and deal with various dilemmas while raising a child and facing relationships gone astray.
