PREFACE

Hinduism is an accurate synthesis of Philosophy, Epics, Puranas and Rituals. These four aspects cater to different components of the human personality to help one to evolve spiritually. Hinduism encompasses subtle philosophical concepts akin to Quantum Physics and Nuclear Science on one side and gross rituals like worship of animals and reptiles on the other. This contrasting practice is to provide religion to people of diverse nature and calibre. Every ritual in Hinduism is pregnant with profound philosophical significance and noble values. One who performs the rituals is expected to contemplate and derive the significance behind the rituals.

The sublime Philosophy of Vedanta imbues your intellect with the knowledge of the Self; with eternal values for life and living. The narratives in the epics describing the lives of godlike characters give you practical demonstration of the eternal values. Thus, it gives the inspiration to implement the eternal values in your life. By understanding the Mythological descriptions of gods and goddesses enhance the devotion and surrender in your mind. The meticulous performance of rituals enhances the discipline essential on the spiritual path.

Thus, by an intelligent blend of the four aspects in your life accelerate your spiritual progress leading to God-realisation.

The book helps one to delve into and contemplate upon the significance of some of the most popular deities, ritual and festivals of Hinduism.
