Over the Paddy Fields: A Collection Of Short Stories from Bangladesh Azhar Islam

Over the Paddy Fields contains interesting and at times startling stories that are closely grounded in reality. Evil Eye reflects the superstitious beliefs of the people of Bangladesh. Third Promise gives an insight to the systematic torture and rape that feature in educational establishments. Freedom Fighter portrays a realistic picture of the 1971 liberation war of independence without malice or prejudice, while Bagel is a heart-warming tale of a defining moment.

The location and the characters of all the stories work well and the narratives are handled effectively. There are some good turns of phrase too, including some evocative similes
