Europa:Origen y justificacion (II) (Spanish Edition) Francisco Gijon

Después del primer volumen de esta historia sociológica y cultural de nuestra Europa nos toca abordar la etapa que da comienzo con la caída de Roma y el advenimiento del cristianismo a nuestra cultura. Son tiempos convulsos que comienzan con fragmentación y enfrentamientos, alterados más si cabe con la irrupción del Islam y su avasalladora influencia. Pero también se abre una etapa en la que el Hombre y su lugar en el mundo son concebidos de un modo diferente. Llega la escolástica, la razón, nuevas formas artísticas y el entusiasmo del saber que conduce a inesperado hallazgos geográficos que expanden la cultura occidental más allá de sus fronteras naturales. El mundo se amplía y redondea, la ciencia florece por doquier y aporta al hombre sus descubrimientos, sus inventos, sus mejoras... y ya nada volverá a ser igual. Con la ampliación cultural dentro del marco geográfico llegan nuevas esperanzas, renovados conflictos e increíbles expectativas que, tras la Ilustración, colmarán el progreso europeo con el advenimiento de una nueva sociedad, industrializada y crítica consigo misma, que revisará todo los conceptos anteriores y desembocará en el surgimiento de un nuevo mundo, mucho más amplio, diverso y conflictivo que le planteará a Europa nuevos retos todavía no superados hoy. Este libro no termina, amigo lector, con respuestas, sino tal vez con la mayor de las preguntas: ¿Qué se puede esperar de Europa ahora? ¿Qué le puede aportar a la Humanidad una cultura, una civilización, que tiene, como hemos visto, todos los años del mundo?
