How To Be a Good Wife, Vol 1 Anne DeLuca

Whether you are already married and seeking to improve your relationship or engaged (or looking to be), and want a little guidance, this book is for you.

Assuming you have chosen your mate well, you love your husband, and you already know the basics of how to be in a committed relationship, use the information inside to last for the long haul.

There is no such thing as a perfect marriage. All relationships have ups and downs, good times and bad, happy times and sad. Of course, we all want peace and harmony and good times, but often it is the difficult times that can strengthen your bond and make your relationship grow stronger.

This book will touch on some of the important areas of a marriage that need special attention in order to maintain a happy, healthy relationship – for both partners.
