Certified Home Health Agency (CHHA) administrators are faced on a daily basis with assuring that their organizations comply with a wide-range of rules and regulations. The regulations promulgated by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) are of primary importance because they affect their eligibility for certification as a CHHA and participation in the Medicare program. This book was prepared as a one-stop source for current information about the Conditions of Participation and the Interpretations that CMS has provided to its surveyors when reviewing the CHHA's compliance with the Conditions. The interpretive guidance provided in this book is taken from the State Operations Manual – Appendix B. This appendix was provided as an “Advance Copy” in February 2011 and is the most current guidance available to surveyors as they perform surveys of Home Health Agencies. This volume provides an easy to read format with extensive indexing to make it easier to look up both the regulations and the interpretive guidance.
