Ants in the Sugar Bowl Michael C Buchanan

Seeking an escape from the restrictions and boredom of his life in California, college student Ben Sullivan moves to Rome for a semester abroad, where he and his flawed roommates abuse their newfound freedoms while pursuing reckless behavior in an effort to feel alive. While ostensibly studying history and architecture, Ben carouses across Europe, judging everything in his path and learning first hand what happens when young Americans get out from under their country's skirt to have some fun, and how the land which provides it is left to clean up the mess.
