An Introduction To Horror: Say Hello To Crystal Meth Susan Smith Alvis

Meth comes into homes and it destroys everyone living within the confines of the four walls it invades. Meth kills. It takes everything. It destroys anyone and everyone that gets in its way and while some choose to look the other way or find a different focus for world peace, Meth lingers. It waits. After all, it's a very patient drug because the longer it weaves its venom through the veins of the user, the more it can ultimately destroy. An Introduction to Horror: Say Hello to Crystal Meth is for the reader who is addicted to Crystal Meth or those who are interested in cooking up their first batch of Crystal Methamphetamines. It's for the addict now running from his own shadow and the mother who can't deal with her addicted son or daughter. It's for teachers and those who are in a position to not only bring about awareness but also make a difference.
