Government pressure increases, bombings disrupt Wizard and Fae business around the world, and splinter groups among the Fae make themselves known. With the Danae on the hunt to bring Cassandra back to her side, Helcyon must block her every maneuver to shield his mate and best friend from a promise that dates back a thousand years. The shifting of oaths leads to the awakening of ancient powers, but history is unforgiving, and the arrival of Hels's brother adds a new complication that could destroy their futures before they even begin.
