Six full-length practice exams prepare test takers for both the language and literature exams in Advanced Placement English, and are presented with all questions answered and explained. Two practice exams cover language, grammar, and usage, and four cover literature. Extensive subject review includes capsule summaries of more than 50 works of American and English literature. There is also a section explains use of literary and rhetorical words and phrases. A separate essay-writing section contains sample responses to AP questions and offers specific advice on writing a successful AP essay.
