Lexi Alamont's been looking for love for years. But living in the small town of Sage Springs, Mo., means the search has not been fruitful. Sure, there are ghosts galore in town, but the selection of living men isn't anything to write home about. She's happily watched her two best friends meet their matches, and she can't help but think that maybe she'll have her chance before long. When Cruz Drakov comes back into town to do some work for his paranormal TV show, Lexi's called in to sweeten up the crew with her baked goods. With her growing business being praised from the mouths of celebrities, Lexi's happy to oblige. What she isn't expecting is to gain the attention of the guy who's everything she's shied away from. Cruz is a self-assured witch, a realist, and not afraid to play the field with his charismatic demeanor. Lexi's optimistic, sweet, and looking for the one who will make her heart whole. Sometimes love is hiding in places you'd least expect. Just ask Lexi and Cruz.
