Finding Meaning in Narnia: A Voyage on the Dawn Treader Gina Burkart

Finding Meaning in Narnia: A Voyage on the Dawn Treader invites readers on a reflective journey of Lewis's story The Voyage of the Dawn Treader. The book, organized around the cardinal virtues, prudence, temperance, fortitude and justice, offers biographical information about Lewis's life to show how his challenges with developing these virtues are reflected in the characters' struggles and adventures in Voyage of the Dawn Treader. Heroic figures of faith who displayed the cardinal virtues in their lives are also offered as real-life examples for readers to model as they are drawn into personal reflective exercises for reflecting on the story, their own struggles, and developing these virtues in their own lives. Relevant Scripture connections are also offered for connecting the story with the Christian faith. The book is ideal for individual reflection, small group discussion, family sharing, or classroom discussions and projects.
