Caught Off Guard C.M. Steele

As far as Zoey Blake was concerned Mike was her brother's lackey, a gorgeous lackey, but a lackey no less. He was a giant pain in the rear and puts the 'bear' in overbearing. She had always been seen as the daughter of William Blake and the sister of the handsome Jackson Blake. She was afraid she would never find anyone that saw her for herself. Now she had two guys that were vying for the real Zoey.

Mike had been through a war, on and off American soil, but nothing was more difficult to face than a war with his mind and heart. Common sense said to stay away from her because she is his friend/client's baby sister, but when had common sense ever played a part when love and lust were involved.

Can he overcome his conscience and take what's his? Can she let the go of her fear being used for her name and give her heart to the lovable brute?
