Irregular People Joyce Landorf Heatherley

Everyone has irregular people in their lives. Those people, usually in your family, who just bug you to death. And because they are in your family, you can't conveniently or graciously get away from them. Joyce delivers the reassuring message that "you are not necessarily the one who's wrong or crazy here." This book helps us to deal with those insensitive people who may have crushed our spirits with their emotional neglect or verbal abuse. . .and with learning how to avoid being an irregular person to others.
