Small Group Outreach: Turning Groups Inside Out Jeffrey Arnold

One of the best ways to experience the love of Christ is through a small Christian community. As a small group grows in caring for one another, its members also grow outward in their commitment to others. When they direct others to Christ, they are themselves encouraged in faith, and the life of the group becomes richer. This book includes chapters on

- praying for lost friends together
- inviting seekers into your group
- getting involved in the ministries of your church
- reaching out to your neighborhood
- going on a short-term mission trip

Whether your group is just getting started or you have been together for a while, there are ideas here for you. The time to begin is now.
