Look inside the book:

I remained silent, for I could think of no argument that would suffice to meet the situation, and taking my apparent immobility for acceptance, she continued: 'It's a big sacrifice, dear, I know, but you will bear it bravely for my sake, because-because there is more in life than love alone and it's the honor of my name that is at stake.' ...In the patch of light cast by a small lamp upon the study table, lying back in his chair with a sardonic grin on his face and an ever-widening stain upon his shirt front, was Philip Darwin, while beside him as if turned to stone, stood Ruth with a pistol in her hand!
